Property Description: My family. has a huge property in Concepcion Iloilo.
The property is almost 100 hectares It used to be 150 hectares but we sold some to a company now building a coal power plant in the property.

We are selling a portion or the whole property. Initially, we want to sell 88 hectares. this particularly is rich in aggregates deposits. Right now, somebody is doing a quarry operation on the said property. It was checked that aggregates/stone supply can reach up to 50 years. In the said property for sale, there is already a pier/port. The said area is suitable for shipbuilding business, quarry operations, warehouses, low cost housing, or can be converted to an economic processing zone/industrial park. The power plant being built will be finished in 2015.
